

Installation

Programs can be installed one by one or all at once. The programs go into the c:/program files/hx11 directory. Some programs need auxiliary files, so these files must reside in the directory containing the executive file.

If the tracker program is to be used and the user wants to utilize the tag image files, these image files can then be moved to the c:\program files\hx11 directory.